

Reading comprehension
for kids

A kitten is a small animal that is not fully grown.

Kittens usually sleep and play a lot. They like to play with toys and can be very cute.

1. A kitten is a small _____ .

2. Kitten _____ a lot.

3. They are very _____ .

The chicken on my farm is munching on some yummy vegetables. Her name is Sally. She has grown really big and really strong because she eats all the food I give her.

1. The chicken is eating _____ .
2. Her name is _____ .
3. The chicken is _____ .

Sharing is important. When you share with others, you are helping them and they are helping you. When you share with others, you make friends and you make people happy.

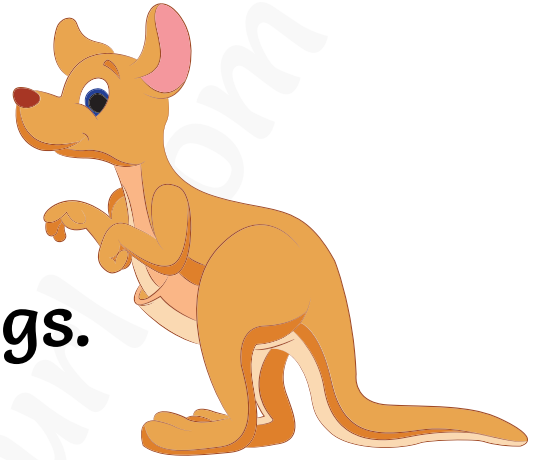

1. Sharing is _____ .
2. You make them _____ when you share.
3. Do you share ? _____ .

Kangaroos are mammals.

They live in Australia. They hop around on their back legs.

Kangaroos live in the wild, but they live near towns and cities because it's easier to find food there.

1. Kangaroos are _____ .
2. They hop with their _____ legs.
3. Usually, they live in the _____ .