My English Teacher

Hello! I'm Rajesh. My online classes start at 8.45 am. I like English class more than other sessions. My English teacher teaches in a creative way. Her name is Reena. I like her pronunciation a lot. I try to imitate her in the classroom.

Sunrise

Sunrise happens in the early morning of the day. The Sun rises approximately at 6.00 am. Though it seems that the Sun is rising from the horizon, which isn't the actual status. The movement of the Earth causes the Sun to rise and set.

Sassy, My Pet

Sassy is my favorite pet. She is a cat. She has a bell on her neck. I kept a separate basket near my bed. She eats fish in the day time and drinks milk in the evening. We all love Sassy a lot.

The Blanket of Molly

Molly had a blanket which was so pretty and bright. It's color was in bright blue with black polka dots. Everyone in her family liked that blanket. Molly kept it like her pet. Wherever she goes, she never forgets to take her blanket. When her mother saw this, she advised her not to take it everywhere since it will become dirty soon. Molly agreed and kept it in her room safely.
