

Reading comprehension for kids

When Maria was a little girl, she wondered what the world would be like beyond her town. She wanted to be an adventurer.

1. Who do we talk about?

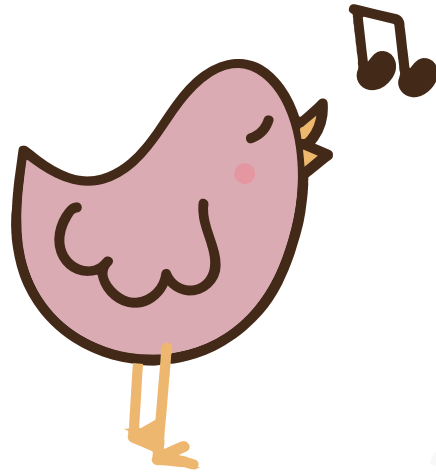

- a. Maria b. Molly c. Ava

2. What was she wondering about?

- a. world b. peacocks c. cats

3. What did she want to be?

- a. teacher b. adventurer c. home maker

One morning a bird was sitting in a tree close by the window. A young girl was watching the birds in the tree outside.

1. What do we read about?

a. a bird b. a teen boy c. a young boy

2. The bird is close to

a. window b. door c. girl

3. Who was watching the birds?

a. a young girl b. a young boy c. mother

Once upon a time there was a little child.
Her name was Alice. She didn't want to go to bed because she wanted to play with her friends.

1. Who do we read about?

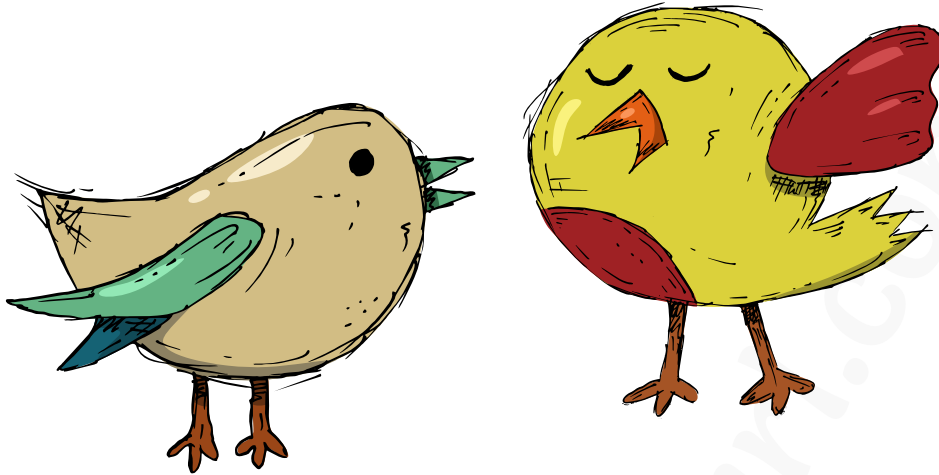

- a. Alice b. Molly c. Ava

2. Does she like to sleep?

- a. yes b. no

3. What did Alice want to do?

- a. play b. sleep c. cook

One spring day in a lilac bush, two birds were chirping and tweeting. Also there were some ducks there.

1. Which season you read about in the story?
a. spring b. summer c. monsoon
2. How many birds were there?
a. Two b. Three c. Four
3. Were there any ducks?
a. yes b. no

James had been playing outside and his mother told him to clean up his toys. He had been busy playing all day. James was very tired, so he didn't have the strength to pick up all of his toys.

1. Who do we read about?

- a. James b. Ava c. Nat

2. What was he doing outside home?

- a. play b. dance c. sing

3. Why is it hard for James to clean up his toys?

- a. because he is tired b. because, he does not like to