

Reading comprehension
for Grade 2 or 3

One day, a little boy James was in the field singing and shouting. He observed that his song was coming out more nicely than he expected. He felt very happy as his voice came out in a beautiful tune. From that point on, he knew he was going to be a singer.

1. Who do we read about?
2. What do you think about James?
3. Where was he trying to sing and shout?
4. Will he become a singer? Explain.

Actions speak louder than words. Our relationships with others are defined by our actions. How we treat others reveals a lot about our character and is an indication of how others will treat us. Treat others well, and good things will come back to you.

1. What is louder than words?
2. Should we do good to others?
3. How should we treat others?
4. What will happen if we ill-treat others?

A cute bee lived in a garden packed full of sweet new flowers and fruits, each in glorious colors and sparkles. When the bee flew around from flower to flower, he found that everything he landed on tasted like candy. He thought he was in the heaven made of candies.

1. Who do we read about?
2. Where is the bee now?
3. What are all the things the bee see in the garden?
4. How does bee feel in the garden?

A woman once found a dog in the street and brought it home. The dog quickly grew to be attached to her. One day, she subsequently found him a collar and brought him on a walk outside. She had never walked a dog before, so she struggled. The dog, however, helped lead her.

1. Is the woman good and kind-hearted?
2. What did she bring her home?
3. Is it her first dog?
4. Is the dog helpful? Explain.

Cats are intelligent, spirited, affectionate creatures that bring their owners joy. They are the most popular pets in the world and others find them soothing and comforting. Some people fear that having cats around would make them feel uncomfortable or annoyed, but this seems to be unfounded.

1. What do we read about?
2. Are cats smart?
3. Why do people like cats?
4. Why do some people do not like cats? Explain.