

1st Grader

Reading comprehension

James is Smart

The tall boy's name is James. James is a smart boy. He is good at Math. He is good at playing baseball.

Who do we talk about?

Is he good at math?

What does he play?

Race

Today, our school is running a race. Molly is my friend. She is also running in the race. There are five children in the race.

What is happening in our school?

Who is my friend?

How many are running the race?

My dad

My dad works very hard.
He is always late to home in the evening. But he never forgets to smile. I love my dad.

Who is working hard?

Does my dad come home soon?

He never forgets to _____ .

Learning to Play

James is learning to play football. But he wants to do everything quickly. One day, he hurt his foot when he kicked the ball.

What is James learning?

Is he doing everything quickly?

He _____ his foot when he kicked the ball.