

Helping Verbs and Action Verbs

Identify the Helping Verb and Action Verb in the following sentences. Circle the Helping Verb and Underline the Action Verb.

1. I am writing a paper.
2. They have been writing for hours.
3. She had written three drafts before I was satisfied.
4. He will write a final draft tomorrow.
5. I shall be writing all night.
6. You should write more often.
7. She would write more if She had more time.
8. I might write a novel someday.
9. I can write pretty well when I try.
10. You must not plagiarize other people's work when you write your paper.

Helping Verbs and Action Verbs (key)

Identify the Helping Verb and Action Verb in the following sentences. Circle the Helping Verb and Underline the Action Verb.

1. I am writing a paper.
2. They have been writing for hours.
3. She had written three drafts before I was satisfied.
4. He will write a final draft tomorrow.
5. I shall be writing all night.
6. You should write more often.
7. She would write more if She had more time.
8. I might write a novel someday.
9. I can write pretty well when I try.
10. You must not plagiarize other people's work when you write your paper.