

Princess Catherine was always a bright student, but she had never been to an actual school before. When she learned that she would be attending one for the first time, she was excited and nervous all at the same time. On her first day, she met her teacher, Miss Smith. Miss Smith was very kind and helped her to feel comfortable right away. Princess Catherine soon found out that she loved learning new things in school. She started to have fun with math. She made new friends and enjoyed learning about all sorts of new things, from math and science to history and English.

1. What was Princess Catherine's initial reaction to learning that she would be attending school for the first time?
2. How did Princess Catherine feel after meeting her teacher, Miss Smith?
3. What subjects did Princess Catherine enjoy learning about in school?
4. Did Princess Catherine make any new friends during her time at school?