

My best friend forever

Sarah is my best friend. We have been best friends since we were five years old. We have always stuck together and been there for each other through thick and thin. I can't imagine my life without her by my side. She is truly my best friend forever!

Questions

1. Who is my best friend?
2. How long have Sarah and her best friend been best friends?
3. What can't Sarah imagine about her life without her best friend?
4. Why is going through "thick and thin" important in a friendship?

The mischievous dog

The mischievous dog was always getting into trouble. He would run around the neighborhood, jumping on fences and digging holes in people's yards. Everyone in the neighborhood knew about the mischievous dog and would often scold him when they saw him getting into mischief.

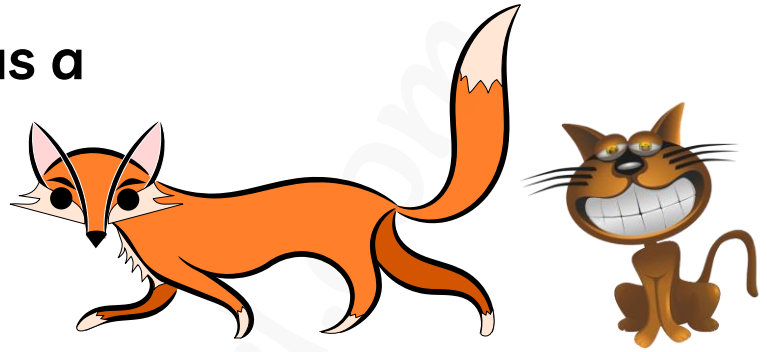

Questions

1. Why is the dog called mischievous?
2. What does the dog do with the neighborhood?
3. How do the dog get into the neighborhood?
4. What do the neighbors do when they find the dog?

A fox with a long tail

Once upon a time, there was a fox with a long tail. He was very proud of his tail and always showed it off to everyone.

One day, he met a cat with a short tail. The cat laughed at the fox's long tail and said, "Your tail is so silly! It's too long!" The fox got angry and chased the cat.

Questions

1. What is very special with the fox?
2. Why does the fox want to show it to everyone?
3. Who did the fox meet?
4. How did the cat react when it saw the fox's tail?
5. Why did the fox get angry at the cat?