

Reading comprehension for Grade 3 or 4

Don't Put All Your Eggs in One Basket.

James went to see a movie with his parents. He was excited to see the movie because he had heard good things about it. James' parents were also excited to see the movie. The movie was about a boy who goes on an adventure with his friends. He thought it was one of the best movies he had ever seen. His parents also loved it. They laughed at the funny parts and cried at the sad parts. After the movie, James told them that he loved it and thought it was amazing.

- 1. Where did James go with his parents?
- 2. What did James think of the movie?
- 3. What was the movie about?
- 4. Did James like the movie?
- 5. What was James's reaction to the movie?

Molly's math test in school was going to be very important. Although she was confident, the night before the test, Molly got very nervous. She couldn't concentrate. She was thinking about the material she still had to review.

Molly's mother could see that her daughter was stressed out. So, she sat down with Molly and reviewed key concepts and made sure that Molly felt comfortable with the material. By the time they were done, Molly felt much better and she was able to go to bed and get a good night's sleep.

- 1. What was Molly's test in school?
- 2. Why did Molly get nervous the night before her test?
- 3. What did Molly's mother do to help her daughter feel better?
- 4. By the end of their review, how did Molly feel?

Oliver started school today and he was nervous. He woke up early and couldn't wait to put on his new school clothes. Mom helped him brush his hair and then they walked to school together.

When they arrived, Oliver said goodbye to his mom and went into his new classroom. He met his teacher, Ms. Smith, and sat down at his desk. The other students came in and soon it was time to start learning.

Oliver had a great first day of school. He made new friends and learned a lot. He can't wait to go back tomorrow!

- 1. Why was Oliver nervous?
- 2. What did he do when he woke up early?
- 3. Who helped him brush his hair?
- 4. Where did they walk to together?
- 5. Who said goodbye to whom first?

The family had been planning their trip for months. They were all excited to go camping and spend time together in nature. They packed their car with all the necessary supplies, including food, clothes, and a tent. When they arrived at the campsite, they set up their tent and began to prepare the campfire.

First, they gathered some wood and arranged it in a pile. Then, they lit the fire and watched it burn. As the night went on, they roasted marshmallows and told stories around the campfire. It was a perfect way to spend time together as a family.

- 1. Why were the family excited to go camping?
- 2. What did they pack in their car?
- 3. How long had they been planning their trip?
- 4. How did they prepare the campfire?
- 5. What did they do around the campfire at night?