

Name _____

Reading Comprehension

Read It And Answer The Following

The daisy is a simple and cheerful flower with white petals and a yellow center. It is often used in bouquets and flower arrangements.

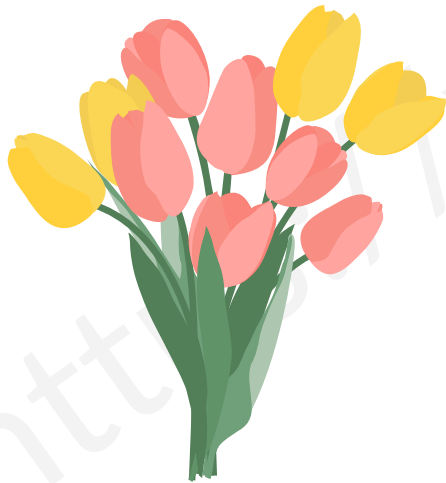

1. What does a daisy look like?
 - A) It has white petals and a yellow center
 - B) It has red petals and a black center
 - C) It has blue petals and a green center
2. What are daisies often used for?
 - A) Making tea
 - B) Making perfume
 - C) Bouquets and flower arrangements

Name _____

Reading Comprehension

Read It And Answer The Following

The tulip is a popular spring flower that comes in many different colors. It is known for its unique shape and vibrant petals.

1. What kind of flower is a tulip?
 - A) A winter flower
 - B) A spring flower
 - C) A summer flower
2. What is the tulip known for?
 - A) Its unique shape
 - B) Its strong scent
 - C) Its long stem

Name _____

Reading Comprehension

Read It And Answer The Following

The orchid is a delicate and exotic flower with intricate patterns on its petals. It is often grown as a houseplant.

1. What kind of flower is an orchid?
 - A) A common flower found in gardens
 - B) A delicate and exotic flower
 - C) A flower that only grows in the wild
2. Where is an orchid often grown?
 - A) In gardens
 - B) In the wild
 - C) As a houseplant

Name _____

Reading Comprehension

Read It And Answer The Following

The butterfly has wings that are very colorful. It flies from flower to flower to drink nectar.

1. What does a butterfly use its wings for?
 - A) To swim
 - B) To fly
 - C) To climb
2. What does a butterfly drink from flowers?
 - A) Honey
 - B) Water
 - C) Nectar