

Other ways to say happy with example sentences

- Amused - The joke amused the audience.
- Beaming - She gave me a beaming smile.
- Blissful - We spent a blissful week together.
- Blithe - A blithe heart makes a blooming visage.
- Cheerful - She was always cheerful and outgoing.
- Contented - He contented himself with his work.
- Delighted - We are all delighted at the news.
- Delightful - It has been a most delightful evening.
- Ecstatic - Sally was ecstatic about her new job.
- Elated - He was greatly elated by success.

Other ways to say happy with example sentences

Enjoyable - We had a most enjoyable evening.

Euphoric - Scientists are euphoric at the result of the test.

Exuberant - She gave an exuberant performance.

Fantastic - We had a fantastic trip to Europe.

Feel-good - His latest film is a feel-good movie.

Glad - I'm glad I've gotten to know you.

Jocular - He sounded in a jocular mood.

Jolly - She was a jolly, kindhearted woman.

Jovial - He seemed a very jovial chap.

Joyful - Christmas is a joyful occasion for children.

Other ways to say happy with example sentences

- Joyous - The bells rang a joyous peal.
- Jubilant - The whole nation is jubilant.
- Lively - Emma was bright and lively.
- Merry - A merry heart makes a cheerful countenance.
- Overjoyed - Shelley was overjoyed to see me.
- Pleased - I'm pleased to meet you.
- Rejoicing - There was great rejoicing at the victory.
- Radiant - She was radiant with joy at her wedding.
- Upbeat - She's a very jolly, upbeat sort of a person.
- wonderful - It is a wonderful experience.